It was supposed to return in 2017, but it was announced a year ago, so Hypixel Inc may or may not have changed plans. To answer the original question, the former IP was simply closed pe.hypixel.net Sorry, the Pocket Edition server about a month after it was officially made? No, Bladestorm was confirmed as 'Hypixel PE' in October 2015 and closed on March 31, 2017... 5 months. It was interrupted (technically, on a time-limited test) because Minecraft PE itself was not stable enough to provide the required player experience (for example, lack of authentication) Did they not say that they could bring it back in the future? They said it will be back in 2017. Well... we can assume it should, but they never could have said, of course this beta phase was planned after Mojang's progress on the Minecraft Pocket Edition, so Hypixel is not really the one who decides whether the project could be stable enough... The PE server was closed last year or the year before and will not return. Could you link the source about will not make a return please? On the first day they talked about 2017... When it closed a year ago, it was not to close the PE network, but to wait for the PE client to be ready for stable multiplayer use. The PE network project opportunities are probably the same as the chances of the international server project : very likely, if Mojang helps on his side, impossible if Mojang screw things up to x) Last edited: May 12, 2017 MacintoshOS laplongejr CraftTech CT Guild Master Nothing has ever happened to the Server, I think. Cracked servers have never tried to be a legal game development company with dozens of full-time employees. I can guarantee that these servers will have to have problems to get high-level sponsors or a booth at Minecon or Insomnia... (Well, nothing happened true, but a company where nothing happens is a dead company.) Voting 2489 votes is definitely the best project in the history of Minecraft servers. Here you can see a variety of mini-games, an excellent development team, excellent friendly players and a whole world of adventures. You've probably heard of this project many times. In total, dozens, if not hundreds of millions, of users are registered for the project. Can you imagine the scope of the project? Here you will always find who you can communicate with - whether foreign players or our compatriots. For example, there is a super copy of the popular Contra - it's called Cops and Crims. Below is a video review from which you understand how realistic you were to recreate Valve's masterpiece in Minecraft network multiplayer. If you enjoy the beauty of the cubic world, you have to do it here. The project employs a specialized team of designers and architects who put their soul into each cube and carefully select the colors, shape and filling of buildings. It is better to take friends and visit it yourself. If you've never been to Hypixel, be patient: the project is so big, amazing and complex that you just need to study and explore all the possibilities :) The promo video of the mini-game Wither's Challenge Presentation Herobrine's Mansion on the servers of Hypixel Official Trailer of all projects Hypixel Cops q Crims - mini game on the servers of highpixel, similar to any favorite Counter Strike.
